

San Rafael Residence

MARIN

This remodeled hillside home was designed to improve the curb appeal of the exterior and open up interior spaces to the surrounding landscape. The new façade features a shimmering standing seam metal roof and aluminum and sandblasted glass garage door, while walnut and sandblasted glass french doors and subtle lighting highlight new planting areas. An interior stairwell was filled with windows and playful lighting to frame a spectacular view.

Architect

Ohashi Design Studio

Location

San Rafael, CA

Competition

Home Tours 2012